NEW COMPUTER AND MOBILE DEVICE CLASSES Free Series At Solvang Library Starts April 20

Santa Barbara, CA – April 4, 2013

Solvang Library announces a new series of free classes aimed at helping people become more comfortable with the many opportunities and options presented by computers and mobile devices, including tablets, smartphones, e-readers and more. The series will be taught by Eric Delgado, starting Saturday April 20 at 11:00 a.m., with a presentation titled "What are Tablets - and How to Use Them!" During the 50-minute class, Delgado will review tablet computers and their functions, showing how they can replace your home computer, and how to integrate them into your mobile life. The class is free of charge, and anyone can register online at www.sbplibrary.org or by calling the library at 805-688-4214.

"Are you overwhelmed by all your modern technology devices? My goal is to teach you how to take advantage of your devices. This is your golden opportunity to ask every technical question you have EVER had! Ever!" affirms volunteer computer instructor Eric Delgado. A Santa Ynez Valley native who graduated from SY High in 1999, Eric received his B.S in Computer Network Management, and started TechITUp, a computer setup and digital-life management company.

Additional classes will include: Smart Phones, on Saturday, April 27; Online Storage Solutions (learning how to share digital files easily) on Saturday, May 4; How to Find and Download Free Audio and eBooks Through Better Internet Searching, on Saturday May 11; and Evernote: the Ultimate Digital Note Organizer, on Friday, May 17. Start time for all classes is 11:00 a.m.

Solvang Library, a branch of the Santa Barbara Public Library System, is located at 1745 Mission Drive. All library programs are free and open to the public. Please call 805-688-4214, or visit the library system's website at www.sbplibrary.org to find out about these and other programs at libraries in the Santa Barbara Public Library System.
